PUBLIC MEETING!

Mayor Tompsett and the Council—Investigate that Shall be Made—The Honor, Honesty, and Credit of the City of Louisville Must be Sustained.

There is a call upon the citizens of Louisville to know whether a charge of corruption, brought by the Mayor, and sustained by affidavits, shall be smothered in the Commonwealth. There is no way to reach the matter but through public meetings. Shall our Mayor be impeached for simply doing his sworn duty. Turn out to-night by thousands, citizens of Louisville, and show your regard for the city's interest. Let the Courthouse be jammed by the people from every quarter of the city. Let the people show their might, and show that they are in earnest.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Friday, Dec. 8 Considering that the holiday intervened since the last sitting of the Court, there was only a moderate amount of business on hand.

The following cases were disposed of after General Henry E. Reed (late of the rebel army) was sworn in as attorney: Wm. Kennedy, assaulting Wm. Foley; assault of Wm. Foley.

Warren Robins, a negro, for drinking too much moon whisky, was fined $10 and held in $200 for safety.

Pat. Moran left $5 with the clerk because he was unable to quit strong drink.

Joseph Hammer got drunk and was brought before the court, but the Judge let him off.

Michael Smith, for being drunk and disorderly, paid $5 fine.

Jacob Dawson (F. M. C.), assaulting Mrs. Fitch; discharged.

John Halloran, drunk and disorderly; fined $5 and held in $200 for safety.

George Hailey and Dr. G. L. Lanigan were all before the Court charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and Gater with carrying concealed a deadly weapon. Lanigan was discharged and the others fined $10 each. Gater was also required to give bail in $100 to answer.

Jno. Owen, carrying concealed a deadly weapon; held to bail in $100 to answer.

Danl Clark and Jno. Harman, assault on Ellen Cronan; fined $5 each, and Clark held to bail in $50 for ninety days.

David Mattfield, drunk and disorderly; fined $5.

Cob Low (F. M. C.), stealing a show-weight over $4 from Mr. McCabe; discharged.

Thos. Flynn, disorderly conduct; discharged.

Bridget Riley, drunkenness and disorderly conduct; fined $5 and held to bail in $50 for sixty days.

Lawrence Hand, disorderly conduct; continued until to-morrow.

Fine to the amount of $30 was imposed on ordinance warrants, mostly for driving.

We hope the indignation unspoken everywhere about the course of the Board of Common Councilmen, will not be too much directed against all the members who voted for the impeachment. True, all were to blame, but in the name of all morality let us not conclude that all were actuated by the sinister desire to shield those charged with corruption.

Others, however, did far worse. We are sufficiently shocked and mortified that any such thing should have occurred, without becoming too zealous in our condemnation. Let the meeting-to-night be deliberately, requiring nothing more nor less than that the Mayor shall be arraigned in doing his duty, and the guilty punished. Let it act wisely and unostentatiously and crush corruption in Louisville in the bud.

Wood's THEATER.—One of the most successful engagements ever played in this city was that of Mr. and Mrs. Chase Keen, which closed at this theater last night.—The house on the occasion of their benefit, being crowded to its capacity, with a large and intelligent audience. The great play of Henry VIII was well received. Mr. Keen as the Cardinal shone in his part, and was the chief attraction of the evening. The dresses on the stage were beautiful, and Mrs. Keen acted the Queen with great dignity which we very seldom see on the American stage. This afternoon at the matinee and to-night we are to have the great spectacle of Aladdin.

A Question for the People to Decide.

Whether a bare majority of the Councilmen of the city, or the Mayor, to whom the provisions are not complied with, and upon his failing to comply with that request, whether he shall be impeached and removed from office. If the people determine we have better go into liquidation and choose this delicate Junto to control city affairs.

Tobacco.—We notice in the sales-to-day by Messrs. Spratt & Co., of the Fisher warehouse, one-hundred new crop, grown by H. Mansfield, of Mechanicsville, Ky., at $8 per 100 lbs. This is the finest hogshead of new tobacco sold this season, and was purchased by Messrs. J. T. Spillman & Bro., of Cincinnati.

Col. Milon Graham, of the 1st Kentucky cavalry, passed through the city yesterday from Bowling Green to his home in Mercer county. The Colonel has just captured and made prisoner for life an esteemed lady of Warren county, and transmits her to his domain at Salvias.

CHANCERY COURT.—The Chancery Court met yesterday morning. There was nothing of interest transpiring. In the case of Sweeney against Sweeny for a divorce, the prayer of the plaintiff was granted.

DEFECTORY.—H. S. Saunders, a dentist of skill, has his office and residence at No. 6 Jefferson street, south side, between Second and Third streets. Those in need of a dental service should call on him.

The County Court, the Hon. Andrew Monroe presiding, was in session yesterday.

Extraordinary Course of the Common Council.—JEFFERSON CIRCUIT COURT.

The Indictment Against General Palmer Quashed—Col. Jaques' Case.

Sixteenth Day's Proceedings.

The Jefferson Circuit Court, the Hon. George W. Johnson, on the bench, met again at the usual hour yesterday morning. There was a full representation of the bar present, and also a fair number of citizens, who came either to hear the testimony in the case of Col. James F. Jaques, charged with the murder of Louis C. Williams by means of torture, in this city, during the month of September last.

The other party to the contract retains certain papers which the Mayor alleges should be handed over to the city. These guardians (?) of the city immediately proceed—not to make Mr. Henderson hand over the papers, but to impeach the Major General Jas. M. Palmer, charged with torturing slaves to leave their masters. The following is the opinion which it is rendered by the Judge, from which it will be seen that the indictment was quashed:

In the Commonwealth v. John Palmer.—The Mayor says that the charge is supported by evidence. What is to be done? Does the Council proceed to examine and purge itself of such dishonest men? Not so. With an apparent aim to shield the criminal they proceed to impeach the Mayor. What do they mean by that? Do they intend to prosecute him? They may mean that is the evident appearance of it. The Mayor is to be punished for endeavoring to bring to justice one charged with having been bribed. Will the people endure this? Are we to be sold into the hands of the wicked? Let us proceed, their interests to be punished for endeavoring to shield them?

There is a call for a public meeting to-night. It must be well attended, to shield the criminal from the service of the law.
